MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION
OF DEFENDANT RAYMOUR RADHAKRISHNAN
TO JOIN IN CO-DEFENDANT JOSEPH CARAMADRE'S
MOTION TO SUPPRESS

Mr. Radhakrishnan has moved this Honorable Court to allow him to join in and adopt the arguments in support of co-defendant Joseph Caramadre's Motion to Suppress (DKT #36). Mr. Radhakrishnan submits this memorandum in support of that request. As grounds for the request defendant states the following:

Mr. Radhakrishnan is similarly situated with co-defendant Caramadre in this matter and as particularly relates to the legal issues and eventual ruling on the Motion to Suppress. Permitting Mr. Radhakrishnan to join in the above-specified Motion, which is relevant to Mr. Radhakrishnan, would promote judicial economy, obviate the need for duplication of documents, eliminate the necessity of filing additional motions for adoption of appropriate rulings after they have been entered, and avoid the unnecessary interruption of the motion hearings with requests for adoption of co-defendant's motion and legal arguments throughout any hearings on the Motion.

In light of the foregoing Raymour Radhakrishnan seeks permission to join in Joseph Caramadre's Motion to Suppress. The Government, through Assistant United States Attorney John P. McAdams, has no objection to the granting of this Motion.

Respectfully submitted
Raymour Radhakrishnan
